There are number patterns in the books, chapters, and verses in the Bible which cannot be explained by random chance. It is statistically impossible for them to be there by accident or coincidence. They had to be programmed into the text by an infinitely intelligent author. Here is just a small sample of the thousands of anomalies which have been found so far:

In the first two chapters of the Bible, God made heaven and earth, and all that is within them in 6 days, and rested on the 7th day. He then blessed and sanctified the 7th day, making it holy. This pattern of 7 goes throughout the entire Bible as God's number of rest, completion, and perfection.

The First Chapters of Each Testament

In Genesis 1, God personally speaks 343 (e.g. "Let there be light"). $343 = 7 \times 7 \times 7$. In Matthew 1, God speaks a total of 49 words (through the angel of the Lord). $49 = 7 \times 7$. This creates a perfect "sevened" pattern in the first chapter of the Old Testament and the first chapter of the New Testament.

Genesis 1 = $7 \times 7 \times 7$ words spoken by God

Matthew 1 = 7×7 words spoken by God

The Trinity

The Godhead – 1 John 5:7 "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

The Father + The Word + Holy Ghost = 777 mentions in the Bible

God + Jesus + Holy Spirit = (777×3) mentions in the New Testament

God + Jesus + his Spirit = (777×7) mentions in the Bible

God + Jesus + his Spirit = (777×3) mentions in the New Testament (his Spirit = case-sensitive)

Holy One + Father + Son + Spirit = 777 mentions in the Bible = All capitalized, No endings

The Old & New Testament

The entire Bible is summarized by Moses (representing the Old Testament) and Jesus Christ (representing the New Testament). John 1:17, which contains the 777th mention of Moses, says, “For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.” If you only look at the verse text (excluding Psalm inscriptions), the following pattern emerges:

Moses([‘]) = $(777+70)$ mentions

Jesus([‘]) + Christ([‘]s) = $(777+777)$ mentions

Moses([‘]) + Jesus([‘]) + Christ([‘]s) = $(7 \times 7 \times 7 \times 7)$ mentions

Father & Son

The Father and the Son – 1 John 4:14 “And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.”

Father + Son = $7 \times 7 \times 7$ mentions in the Gospels

Father + Son = 7×7 mentions in first 7 Epistles

Father + Son = 7 mentions in the 7th Epistle

Father + Son = 77 mentions in remaining 14 Epistles

Father + Son = 7×7 mentions in John’s Epistles & Revelation

Father + Son = 7 mentions in Revelation

Father + Son = 70×7 mentions in the Bible

Father = 7×37 mentions in the Bible

Son = 7×33 mentions in the Bible

Father + Son = $7 \times 7 \times 7$ verses in the first 12 books of the New Testament

Father + Son = 7×7 verses in the first 7 books after the Gospels

Jesus, 70×7

The name above all names is Jesus.

There are a total of 980 mentions of Jesus([‘]) referring to Jesus Christ. In the first and last chapters of the Old Testament (Genesis 1 and Malachi 4), there are a total of 980 words. Furthermore, $980 = 70 \times 7 + 70 \times 7$. It just so happens that Jesus speaks this exact equation in Matthew 18:22. In context, Peter is asking Jesus how many times to forgive a brother who sins against you. Miraculously, the name of Jesus appears perfectly separated into 70×7 mentions in Odd Books (Matthew, Luke, Acts, 1 Corinthians, etc.) as well as 70×7 mentions in Even Books (Mark, John, Romans, 2 Corinthians, etc.).

Jesus is the only word amongst all heavily mentioned words in the New Testament where this type of balance occurs. It should not occur at all by chance, because there are far more chapters, verses, and words in Odd Books than in Even Books.

All mentions of Jesus(‘) = 980 mentions = $70 \times 7 + 70 \times 7$

First and Last Chapters of the O.T. = 980 words

Odd Books of the N.T. = 70×7 mentions of Jesus(‘)

Even Books of the N.T. = 70×7 mentions of Jesus(‘)

Jesus, the 77th from God

Jesus first appears as the 7th word from the beginning of the New Testament, and last appears as the 7th word from the end of the New Testament. He is the 77th from God the Father in Luke’s genealogy (Luke 3:23-38) and first appears 77% of the way through the Bible (by total word count). Jesus speaks His signature phrase exactly 77 times (Verily I say unto you/thee...) and nobody else uses that phrase in the entire Bible. All mentions of Jesus Christ and Christ and Christ Jesus = 77 mentions in the first 7 books of the New Testament.

Jesus = Word #7 from the beginning of the N.T.

Jesus = Word #7 from the end of the N.T.

Jesus = 77th from God the Father

Jesus = 77% through the Bible (Mat 1:1)

Jesus Christ + Christ Jesus = 77 mentions in the first 7 books of the N.T.

Jesus speaks His signature phrase 77 times.

Lord of the Sabbath, Verse #7777

Jesus, who is the Lord of the sabbath (The 7th day- a holy day of rest), clearly demonstrates this in Matthew 11:28-12:8. The first mention of rest in the New Testament falls on verse 343 = $(7 \times 7 \times 7)$ of the New Testament (Matthew 11:28), when Jesus offers rest to all who labour and are heavy laden. 7 verses later, Jesus draws a lesson (Matthew 12:4) from the 7777th verse of the Bible (1 Samuel 21:4) for the Pharisees who are accusing His disciples of being unlawful on the sabbath. Matthew 12:1 is the first time that sabbath occurs in the New Testament, and the 77th in the entire Bible (excluding Psalm headings). Also, scripture records exactly 7 miracles performed by Jesus on the sabbath day.

The First and the Last Verses

The first and last verses of the Bible have the exact same amount of letters (44), consonants (27), and vowels (17).

Genesis 1:1 = 44 letters (17 vowels & 27 consonants)

Revelation 22:21 = 44 letters (17 vowels & 27 consonants)

The numbers 17 and 27 first appear as directly related to each other in scripture, as the first and last days of the waters of the flood of Noah (Genesis 7:11, 8:14).

The first verse of the Bible to have “seven” by itself in the text is Genesis 5:7, which contains, 7×4 vowels, 7×7 consonants, and 77 letters. It is the first verse of the Bible to have 77 letters.

The First and the Last Words

The last word of Revelation, Amen (capitalized), is mentioned 77 times in the Bible. The first word of Genesis, In, and the last word of Revelation, Amen, are mentioned a combined 777 times in Genesis and Revelation.

The First Word of the Bible (“In”) = 767 mentions in Genesis & Revelation

The Last Word of the Bible (“Amen”) = 10 mentions in Genesis & Revelation

The First and Last Words of the Bible, “In” + “Amen” = 777 mentions in Genesis & Revelation

Total Verses in the Bible

The Bible contains a total of 31,102 verses. The middle verses are Psalm 103:1,2 which have the same digits (103:1-2 -> 31102). The most interesting fact about 31,102 is its mathematical connection to 7777.

$$31,102 = 7774 + 7775 + 7776 + 7777$$

There are no other ways to add up to 31,102 using consecutive numbers.

For many more examples, read the books at sealedbytheking.com & kevinmannbooks.com

(Note that these miraculous number patterns are found only in the King James Bible. The more recently translated English bible “versions” are at best, poor paraphrases, and at worst, intentional corruptions of the words of God.)

How to Be Born Again (Saved from Hell)

The same God who gave us the Bible (Jesus Christ) also gave us a way to escape the damnation of hell. He came to Earth in human form, lived a sinless life, willingly died an excruciating death for our sins, was buried, rose from the dead, and now offers complete and permanent spiritual cleansing and eternal life to anyone who trusts Him enough to ask Him for it.

Ephesians 2:8-9 “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

Romans 10:13 “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

1 John 1:7 “...the blood of Jesus Christ... cleanseth us from all sin.”

In John 10:28, Jesus promised, “I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.”
