Because there are nearly double the amount of words in Odd Books, most words are lopsidedly found more often in Odd Books than Even. Jesus is the only heavily mentioned word in the N.T. to have a perfect balance— and it's with the exact number that Jesus himself spake to Peter (Mat. 18:22) representing complete forgiveness of sins.

Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.
